Marnie Quillfeather

Harrowgate Vale | marnie.quillfeather@example.org | 07700 900461

PROFILE

History graduate who enjoys turning old records into stories people want to read. Careful with sources, calm with the public

EDUCATION

BA (Hons) History and Imaginary Studies, 2:1 2023 - 2026

University of Nowhere Fen

- Dissertation: Bridges and ballots, parish records in the Fen, 1820 to 1850 (First, 74)
- Led a seminar group of 12 through a term of primary source work

EXPERIENCE

Student Ambassador, University of Nowhere Fen Sept 24 - Jun 25

- Guided 40 open-day tours for families and school groups
- Answered questions from visitors about courses and student life

Bookshop Assistant, The Lantern Bookshop, Harrowgate Vale Jun 2022 – Aug 2023

- Ran the local history table and its monthly reading evening

VOLUNTEERING

Archive Volunteer, Fenland Parish Archive 2024 - Present

- Catalogued 300 letters from the 1840s into the archive's spreadsheet

SKILLS

Research: archival research, oral history, referencing, palaeography, source criticism

Digital: Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Word, PowerPoint, online catalogues, social media

People: public speaking, customer service, tour guiding, teamwork

INTERESTS

Local history walks, choir singing and restoring old maps.